MEMPHIS APPEAL.

MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

DOGMA OF MASONRY.

The Eighteenth Degree, or Knight of Rose Croix, teaches the Initiate that God is good and merciful, and loves and sympathizes with the creatures he has made; that His finger is visible in all the movements of the moral, intellectual and material universe; that we are His children, the objects of His paternal care and regard; that all men are our brothers, whose wants we are to supply, their errors to pardon, their opinions to tolerate, their injuries to forgive; that man has an immortal soul, a free will, a right to freedom of thought and action; that all men are equal in God's sight; that we best serve God by humility, meekness, gentleness, kindness and the other virtues which the lowly can practice as well as the lofty; this is the new Law, the Word, for which the world had waited and pined so long; and every true Knight of the Rose Croix will revere the memory of Him who taught it, and look indulgently even on those who assign to him a character far above his own conceptions or belief, even to the extent of deeming him divine.

Hear Philo, the Greek Jew: "The contemplative soul, unequally guided, sometimes towards abundance and sometimes towards barrenness, though ever advancing, is illuminated by the primitive ideas, the rays that emanate from the Divine Intelligence, whenever it ascends towards the Sublime Treasures. When, on the contrary, it descends, and is barren, it falls within the domain of those Intelligences that are termed Angels, . . . for, when the soul is deprived of the light of God, which leads it to the knowledge of things, it no longer enjoys more than a feeble and secondary light, which gives it, not the understanding of things, but that of words only, as in this baser world. . . .

. . . Let the narrow-souled withdraw, having their ears sealed up! We communicate the divine mysteries to those only who have received the sacred initiation, to those who practice true piety, and who are not enslaved by the empty pomp of words, or the doctrines of the pagans. . . .

. . . O, ye Initiates, ye whose ears are purified, receive this in your souls, as a mystery never to be lost! Reveal it to no Profane! Keep and contain it within yourselves, as an incorruptible treasure, not like gold or silver, but more precious than everything beside; for it is the knowledge of the Great Cause, of Nature, and of that which is born of both. And if you meet an Initiate, besiege him with your prayers, that he conceal from you no new mysteries that he may know, and rest not until you have obtained them! For me, although I was initiated in the Great Mysteries by Moses, the Friend of God, yet, having seen Jeremiah, I recognized him not only as an Initiate, but as a Hierophant; and I follow his school."

We, like him, recognise all Initiates as our Brothers. We belong to no one creed or school. In all religions there is a basis of Truth; in all there is pure Morality. All that teach the cardinal tenets of Masonry we respect; all teachers and reformers of mankind we admire and revere.

Masonry has too her mission to perform. With her traditions reaching to the earliest times, and her symbols dating further back than even the monumental history of Egypt extends, she invites all men of all religions to enlist under her banners and to war against evil, ignorance and wrong.

St Andrew's Day

is the great Masonic day in Scotland. November 30th is sacred to St. Andrew the Scottish Masonic patron saint. On this day the Scottish Lodges hold their festivals and elect their officers. On this day, in 1867, the Grand Lodge of Scotland was organized. St. Andrew is represented with his peculiar cross (crux decussata) beside him or in his hand. Sometimes his cross is in the form of V. Tradition says that he was crucified on a cross, representing the Greek X or Ch, the first letters of Christ's name. In heraldry it is termed the Cross Saltire, emblem of Suffering and Humility. He is always drawn as an old man, with a long, flowing beard.

St. Andrew is said to have suffered martyrdom on the 30th of November. The Russians as well as the Scots hold him in highest reverence.

The Andrew Degrees or Andrew's Masonry, are degrees of Scottish Masonry introduced into France and Germany by the followers of the Pretender, in 1736. "The Apprentice of St. Andrew," and "the Companions of St. Andrew" form the 4th degree of the Swedish system; "Master of St. Andrew" is the 5th degree of the same. "The Favorite Brother of St. Andrew," and also "The Knights of the Purple Band," make the 9th degree of Swedish Masonry.

THE POOR MAN'S JEWELS.

BY MRS. DENNISON, THE WIFE OF A MASON.

My home, it is a poor one,
To all who pass it by;
They cannot see its beauty,
And neither, faith, can I;
That is, in paint or timber,
In doorway or in roof,
But that it has its beauties
I'll quickly give ye proof.

Come hither, young ones, hither,
Your father's steps are near—
That's Bet with hair so yellow,
That's Sue with eyes so clear;
That's Will with tawny trousers
Tucked in his stocking leg;
And yonder two wee darlings
Are beauty Jean and Meg.

A cluster of fair jewels,
Five in the rugged set;
If any man has brighter,
I have to learn it yet;
And Tom, when I am swinging
These arms with weary strain,
Their blessed faces cheer me,
And make me strong again.

I sometimes sit and wonder
"What will their future be,"
If they must delve and patter
A treadmill round like me,
And scarcely, at the year's end,
Have half a groat to spare—
And see bad men put over them—
'Twill be too hard to bear.

But then, I think, as nations
Rise in the scale of might,
God puts the poor man forward,
And gives him power and light;
And learning, Tom, will do it,
And Christian truth will show
That Heaven makes no distinction
Between the high and low.

So, though my home's a poor one
To all who pass it by,
And none can see its beauty
Save mother, God, and I;
The future may be grander
For some great glory won—
Some gem set in the ages
By even a poor man's son.

Valuable [illegible]—For which an [illegible]ed.

[illegible] here is now [illegible] on our table a [illegible] of parchment in [illegible] form of a charter for a Masonic Lodge which was issued [illegible] ninety-two years ago. It is still [illegible] perfect and legible, and every [illegible] contained therein may be read. [illegible] his charter was issued on the 13th of [illegible], 1775, just six days before the battle [illegible] Lexington, by Joseph Montfort, Esq., [illegible] Halifax, North Carolina, to John [illegible]wford, Joel Sturdevant, sen., and [illegible]liam Simmons, jr., and several other [illegible]hren residing near Cabin Point, [illegible]ry county, Colony of Virginia, who constituted a regular Lodge of Free [illegible] Accepted Masons, to be opened at [illegible] in Point, and to be known by the [illegible] of "The Cabin Point Royal Arch [illegible]ge."

[illegible] this Charter Mr. Montfort states [illegible] "Whereas, His Grace, Henry Somerset, Duke of Beaufort, and Grand Master of the most Ancient and Honorable [illegible]ety of Free and Accepted Masons, [illegible] been graciously pleased (by patent [illegible]d the January 14th, Anno Latomorum, 5771, Anno D. 1771, of London,) to [illegible]stitute me Provincial Grand Master [illegible]nd for America, with full power, etc." [illegible]e question will naturally be asked, [illegible]ow came this document in Rochester? That can be readily answered. [illegible]ing the late war when Virginia was [illegible]pied by Federal soldiers some one of [illegible] picked up this parchment and [illegible]ght it North. After passing from hand [illegible] and it came into the possession of Mr. [illegible]n W. McElhenny, contractor. He [illegible] is subject to the order of its proper [illegible]odians if they can be found, and [illegible]ld be very happy to restore it to its [illegible]tful owners. If the Virginia papers [illegible] notice the fact that the charter is [illegible], it may lead to its restoration.—[illegible]hester (N. Y.) Paper.

Jurisprudence.

[illegible]embers of Lodges under suspension, [illegible] have not participated in the fault of [illegible] suspended Lodge, are not to suffer [illegible]alty.

[illegible]hen a subordinate Lodge receives a [illegible]tion they are bound to act fully on it [illegible]he proper time.

[illegible]ardens of a Subordinate Lodge may [illegible]ide and confer degrees in the absence [illegible]he Master, without regard to their [illegible]ing taken the Past Master's degree.

[illegible]he Lodges under this Jurisdiction are [illegible]by instructed to require of every [illegible]didate initiated that he perfect himself in the first degree before being [illegible]sed to the second; and in that of the [illegible]nd degree before being raised to the [illegible]l degree, and that of the third degree within one year from the time he [illegible] so perfected; and that the Worshipful Master of each Lodge is expected to [illegible]ride for such instruction being given [illegible]ach case as is contemplated in this [illegible]e.

[illegible]ubordinate Lodges required not to [illegible]fer degrees on any candidate unless [illegible]e free from such maim or decrepitude that would prevent him from learning the art and being instructed in the [illegible]ees.

[illegible]e Rule requiring a unanimous ballot for each of the degrees should be understood literally, and that it should be the same in each and unanimous in all upon the moral, intellectual, and masonic qualifications of the applicant.

It is not in the power of a majority of the members of a Subordinate Lodge to surrender the charter of said Lodge so long as seven Master Masons, members thereof, continue to work under said charter, and according to the Ancient Landmarks of Masonry.

The old masonic law, that there is no appeal from the decision of a Worshipful Master of a Subordinate Lodge, except to the Grand Lodge, is a salutary law, and should be cheerfully conformed to by the Subordinate Lodge.—Gr. Lodge of Illinois, 1851.

When the deformity of a candidate is not such as to prevent him from being instructed in the art or mysteries of Freemasonry, and does not amount to a disability honestly to procure the means of subsistence, the admission will not be an infringement on the ancient landmarks of the Order.—Gr. Lodge of Maine, 1854.

Subordinate Lodges are required not to confer the degrees on any candidate unless he be a perfect man, having no maim or defect in body, that may render him incapable of learning the art and being instructed in the degrees.—Gr. Lodge of Illinois, 1854.

INCENDIARY CONDUCT OF WHITE AND BLACK RADICALS.

From the Montgomery Mail.]

The incendiary speeches made by the black and white Radicals at the Capitol a few nights ago appear to be the inspiration of insanity. With Loyal Leagues in every precinct, whose sentinels stand armed with government muskets; with an actual negro insurrection at Perote; with a recent negro mob at Union Springs, where a Northern adventurer pretended to have been shot; with an actual mob and threats to burn the town of Greensboro where a negro was recently killed; with an army of negroes marching upon Columbus, Miss., to sack the stores; with another battalion of negroes organized to sack and burn the towns of Marion and Meridian; with a negro loyal league firing upon a company of young men in South Carolina; with negro mobs driving whites from the street cars in New Orleans; with a mob in Richmond applauding Hunnicut when he declared that the street would run in blood; with a league at Richmond and Charleston which orders whites from these cities, with a negro mob in Savannah maltreating a negro who voted the Conservative ticket; with a negro mob in Montgomery dispersed by Federal sabres; with a negro mob at Hayneville called out to Stanwood that "the thing had commenced;" with another mob at Tuskegee assailing the jail and threatening to rescue criminals; with another mob at Kingston threatening the lives of officers who attempted to make arrests—with a Radical party which attempts to clothe these mobs with supreme power by cutting down the number of white voters—with all these facts before them, we consider the remarks of Saffold, Felder, Applegate, and the other assassins of our liberty as the very inspiration of insanity or desperation. They hooted at the idea of trouble! A stranger ignorant of the facts, would have supposed from their remarks the golden age of peaces and prosperity was held within the ballot box of the negro. The Radical white and negroes, it would seem, are leaving nothing undone to stir their party up to violence. Like the orators at the Radical meeting at the Capitol, the negroes of Louisiana Convention leave no doubt that they not only do not wish to avoid a war of races, but actually desire such a catastrophe. For example, in the Louisiand Convention, on Saturday, a negro delegate named Cromwell declared: "We will rule until the last one of us goes down forever; that the negroes were going to have their rights, if it was by a revolution and blood in spite of Andy Johnson or any other 'man.'" He declared that he was ready for a revolution.

This is the sentiment of the Radical negroes, and these Radical white (now few in number) who hope to officer their deluded followers either in peace or war.

The sentiment of the intelligent and respectable colored men, however, is gradually settling down to a calm sensible view of the dangers threatened by the miserable demagogues who have thus far ruled their race. They see that mobs, muskets, disfranchisement, and the other appliances of a desperate faction mean trouble to their race. Hence we are not surprised to see that another colored member of the Louisiana Convention, named Pinchback, deprecated the remarks of Cromwell, and declared that the colored people of this country could get no rights that the whites did not see fit to give them—that the talk of a war of races was all humbug. He alluded to the disparity of numbers between the two races, and declared that the slaveholders of the South had been in the past and were still the friends of the negroes.

We are confident that many of the black race in Montgomery, those who own and who hope to own property, look at this question in the light of prudence and reason. Let them speak out and advise their race as to their best interests! They need no longer be in fear of mobs from the ambitious white demagogues of their own race. The people of Alabama are at last aroused to a sense of the danger which threatens the security of person and property, and they will not permit any more mobs to dominate over themselves or threaten those of the black race who look to the white man of the South as his friend and protector! Let the wise, the prudent, the peaceful of the colored race denounce the ruinous legislation of such men as Swayne and Peyton Finley, and the insane ravings of such desperadoes as Applegate, Saffold and Fielder!

The Work For White Men.

From the Chicago Times.]

The resolutions adopted by the Virginia white men's convention sound the key-note of the great popular reaction that is even now upheaving the political surface in this country. It is the uprising of the sentiment of constitutional liberty against governmental tyranny. It is the protest of nature, springing up in the blood of white men, against the political domination of an inferior race of semi-barbarians just emerged from the degradation of slavery.

Scoff at the idea as some may, the proposition that "This is a white man's government" is a statement of historic truth. It is not necessary to argue the matter. The instinct of every decent white man, no matter to what political party he may belong, tells him that the Creator did not place the broad mark of distinction between the black and white races without a purpose. It tells him that these races were not intended to mingle or miscegenate. And it recoils with abhorrence from the thought that white men should be compelled to submit to be governed by the black race of Africa.

The whole truth was well and forcibly stated by Gen. Thomas Ewing, jr., in his recent letter to some personal and political friends in Kansas. Concerning the Reconstruction measures, he says:

"I regard them as mischievous—begot of revenge, misdirected philanthropy, and lust of power. I would as soon expect a house to stand on the crater of a volcano as a State where, whites and blacks being nearly equal in numbers, the whites are proscribed and the blacks made rulers. Such government cannot long have the heartfelt sympathy of any large body of white men anywhere. Blood is thicker than water, and Northern whites will sympathize with Southern whites in their struggles to shake off the incubus of negro rule. If there were no prejudice of race to affect their action, the Northern people would still refuse to reproduce in the States of the Union, Hayti or Domingo, or any other government and civilization the negro race has established since the flood."

When such sentiments are held by one who filled a prominent place in the history of events during the war—who acted throughout with the dominant political party—who enjoys the prestige of being the son of one of the most illustrious of American statesmen—and who, moreover, is recognized as a man of superior talents and the greatest sobriety in judgment—they carry with them a weight greater than would attach to the utterance of any professional politician.

The simple fact underlying and giving soul, form, and body to the reconstruction business, is the elevation of negroes to the place of white men, and the degradation of white men to the place of negroes. It is against this that nature protests, and will not cease to protest. The whole work of political reconstruction that proceed from this basis, or ends in this result, must and will be undone. As surely as "blood is thicker than water," the white race which founded this Government of white men "for themselves and their posterity" will undo it.

The Virginia white men's Convention adopted a resolution authorizing its Central Committee to take measures to test the constitutionality of the reconstruction acts in the Supreme Court. In this action the white men of Virginia will receive the cordial sympathy of honest white men everywhere. If the reconstruction acts be unconstitutional—as all conservative white men believe them to be—an official declaration of that fact will materially assist in the work of their undoing. If they be not unconstitutional, no advocate of those enactments can reasonably object to the proposed test.

Let the Virginia committee proceed to bring the case alluded to by Mr. Imboden into the Supreme Court. It will be a step gained in the great work which the white race in America has before it—the vindication of its superior right and authority in the Government over the brutalized race of Africa.

IN entering upon another commercial year, with the experience of the past, fraught with the many vicissitudes incident to a changed system of agriculture, and for which most of our planters were little prepared, resulting in heavy loss to planter and merchant, as an experiment tried, we shall adopt a rigid cash system in our business—taking no risk, and making our sales prompt upon receipt of consignments, remitting proceeds with as little delay as possible; but in all cases obeying instructions of shippers, and using our best endeavors to promote the interest of our patrons.

THE DESOTO
Commercial College.

A NIGHT SESSION, IN CONNECTION with this College, is now inaugurated. As a temporary arrangement, the Class meets in the SOUTHWESTERN PUBLISHING HOUSE, No. 37 SOUTH COURT STREET.
The course of instruction is eminently practical as well as scientific, embracing everything necessary to fit young men for the efficient discharge of the duties of an Accountant and Book-keeper in a merchant's office. The student goes through precisely the same routine of journalizing, posting into his ledger, and closing his books, and then making out his balance sheet, as he would in actual business. This process is renewed an indefinite number of times, till he becomes as familiar with these operations, and as expert in performing them, as if he had spent a long apprenticeship in the Counting House.
TERMS.—For Night Session (in advance) one month, $8; three months, $20.

Stenography.

This elegant and beautiful art, so indispensable to the public journalist; the lawyer, clergyman and student, and so invaluable to the business man, is taught successfully in TEN LESSONS for $10. PATENT MEDICINES.

MRS. JACKSON'S
Queen Bess Complexion Wash.

THE following certificates, selected from hundreds in the possession of the proprietress, are confidently submitted to the public:

MRS. WOLCOTT'S CERTIFICATE.
QUINCY, Ill., November 5, 1866.

MRS. JACKSON, Dear Madam—It is with pleasure that I certify to you, that seeing one of your circulars, which contained certificates and indorsements from the best physicians and the highest medical authorities of the United States, certifying that your oils for the complexion and teeth were purely the oils, extracts and essences of flowers, and that they warrant it when used according to directions to cure the worst and most difficult cases of nursing, sore mouth, canker of the stomach, bowels and dyspepsia. For scrofulous disorders, when used both internally and externally, it has no equal. Dear Madam, seeing this, and my little daughter, aged fifteen months, having the whooping cough for several months, accompanied with what the doctors call white canker, her mouth and throat being terribly ulcerated, and I having tried everything for its relief I could hear of, all to no purpose, I bought one bottle of your oil for the complexion, called "Queen Bess," went according to the directions, did not use quite one bottle, and I am most happy to state to you that it has cured my child. She is now as well and hearty as ever she was in her life. I give you this, my certificate, hoping you will publish it, that thousands of others who may be afflicted with any of the above affections may at once get a bottle of your "Queen Bess," for I feel sure they will find immediate relief. Yours respectfully,
MRS. GEO. WOLCOTT,
Jersey street, bet. Sixth and Seventh.

MRS. WM. B. COLLINS' CERTIFICATE.
HANNIBAL, MO., August 22, 1866.

MRS. JACKSON. Dear Madam—I am most happy to inform you that after having suffered more than three years with what some physicians call nursing sore mouth, or canker of the mouth and throat, I tried various remedies, but found nothing to do me any good until I heard of your oils for the complexion and teeth, called "Queen Bess." I bought one bottle, went according to directions, and am truly thankful to say I have found a permanent cure. Hoping you will publish this, that other poor sufferers may be benefitted by it, I remain,
Yours respectfully,
MRS. WM. B. COLLINS.

NO ESTABLISHMENTS of Military despotisms, no enthroning of martial law, no suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus, no slaying of citizens by Military Commission, no interference with the Courts, no lettres de cachet, in time of peace.

STRICT SUBORDINATION of the Military to the Civil Power.

NO STANDING ARMIES of States in time of peace.

RESTORATION of disfranchised citizens to all rights and privileges of which they have been disseized; no prosecutions or disqualifications for political opinions; for the PAST, oblivion of offences; for the PRESENT and FUTURE, UNION, PEACE, LAW and ORDER.

PERPETUAL ASSURANCE to all freemen of the African race, of all the CIVIL rights of freemen

SOVEREIGN CONVENTIONS.

The first Convention under the Reconstruction acts, that of Alabama, has just adjourned, after a session which has filled even its friends in the North with disgust, and which has persuaded GREELEY, of the New York Tribune, and WILSON, of Natick, to remonstrate with them against their absurdly violent and extreme course. Gen. POPE also earnestly insisted on their resignation, as a measure of safety to the Radical party.

Three other "sovereign" Conventions, under the same act, are now in session—that of Virginia, of Georgia, and of Louisiana. Judging from the proceedings of these three Conventions, there is no abatement in the violence and ultraism which characterised the first. With regard to the Virginia Convention, the special correspondent of the New York Herald at Richmond sums up his observations, thus far, in the following language:

Looking at the body from a Northern standpoint, and bearing in mind the recent verdict in Ohio, New York and Pennsylvania, it is forcibly striking that the expense to which the State of Virginia, impoverished as it is, is being put by this reconstruction farce, is entirely foreign to every object that has patriotism in view. Summing the whole up in a nutshell, the spirit of the body, after a strict and careful "count of noses," may be enumerated as follows: Radical members, taking their cue from the aspiring Henry Wilson, who wants to slip into the Presidency in case of failure of Grant or Chase to secure the nomination or a majority vote in the electoral college, are intent upon universal negro suffrage, which will be one of the main features in the new Constitution. They will also repudiate all debts contracted previous to the war, in the hope of securing the sympathies of "poor whites" and all the negroes. There will scarcely be any alteration of the martial code, and though illegal cohabitation between the races may find an opposition in the legislation of the Convention, miscegenation and amalgamation, where it can be legally carried out, will be winked at.

There can be no doubt that this is the truth, rather mildly stated. The deliberations of such a Convention, upon Virginia soil, will be one of the wonders of history. The future historian will be puzzled to understand how a commonwealth, whose traditions and history embody so much of human excellence, dignity and happiness, could have fallen so low in the scale of intelligence and honor, as to have been compelled to suffer such a shame upon all that is glorious in the past or hopeful in the future. UNDERWOOD, HUNNICUTT, and their confreres in crime and abasement, are indeed immortal in the contrast which they present to the bright and glorious names of the past. The men in Congress who had the boldness to consign the Old Dominion, with her illustrious traditions, to such a condition will come in for a fair share of the criticism of posterity. In the whole range of history we cannot recall a single instance of as sudden a transition of any people, from glory to shame, from happiness to misery, as that presented to-day by the land of WASHINGTON and sister States. It seems as though Providence had reserved them for some special application, that he might teach them some great and important lesson.

But Virginia does not stand isolated in this decree of misfortune and misery. The land of OGLETHORPE and more recently of TROUP, FORSYTH and CRAWFORD has simultaneously fallen under the same terrible ban. A Convention of renegade Northerners, field negroes and mercenary Southerners is now in session at Atlanta, under the same potent authority as that which called together the Convention in the land of WASHINGTON, HENRY, JEFFERSON, MADISON and WIRT.

A correspondent of the Herald, who has been "taking notes," in this Georgia Convention, does not hesitate to express his opinion of it in the following strong language:

After mature consideration, I do not hesitate to admit that if I were asked what my opinion is of the Georgia Convention, my answer would be "little intelligence, much ignorance, any quantity of vindictiveness, a mixture, not of the Puritan and the blackleg, but of the negro and the blackleg."

In fact, and in conclusion, if the basements of Baxter and Mulberry streets were searched, men more capable of framing the organic law of Georgia could be found in five hours' search than can be discovered after a year's inquiry, in the majority of the Georgia Convention. This is not prejudice; it is simply truth; God's truth.

So much for Georgia. Now we come to our Louisiana neighbor. We have the privilege of referring to the opinion of another correspondent of the same paper who, after watching their movements for ten days, thus opens his mind:

To their credit, be it said, there are intelligent colored men in the Convention who know these men, negroes who cannot be driven as of old by slave catchers and breeders of blood hounds, and Ingraham, Pinchback, Bonseigneur and Bortanneau will, before this Convention closes its sessions, show that although their skins are tinted with African blood they are of superior manhood than the miserable scum who would use them.

A State Constitutional Convention! What a farce! Ninety-eight white and black men, not one in ten of whom to-day can pay a week's board in advance, sitting in council to frame organic laws for the great State of Louisiana! Oh! that Ben Wade, Zack Chandler, Wilson, Butler and Chase, who are for negro equality before the law, could be transported here for one hour and see what I see, and hear what I hear. It is all very well for them to harp upon negro suffrage and negro equality, but let them wait until under the law they have helped to frame, the Bob Ridleys, Old Dan Tuckers, Dandy Jim and Nicodemuses of the cotton fields take their seats in the Congress of the United States, and we shall see a different state of things. Negro suffrage may be all very well if education is made the basis, but the idea of calling a Convention of men from the sugar mills and cotton fields to make laws and impose taxes upon the descendants of our revolutionary fathers, is preposterous, is infamous, admitting even that some of those descendants of the old stock have been rebels. The negro must have his rights, but the right to be a white man's superior is not one of them. "Let the dance go on;" it will sometime end. Thank God we can afford to wait, to suffer and hope. As far as this chequered Convention is concerned, all respectable white men are becoming disgusted, and want to see Congress, or his satanic majesty, drop the curtain.

The same correspondent alludes to the pecuniary embarrassments of the Convention:

The question of money to pay the expenses of the Convention is one that seriously perplexes the members. There is not a picayune in the State Treasury. Three-fourths of the members are "strapped" and cannot pay for the washing of their linen, let alone board bills, which in this city are enormous. The subject was brought up to-day in the form of an ordinance for levying special taxes on rent and personal property, and for the issuing of half a million bonds by the President of the Convention to defray its expenses. The subject is being considered in the Finance Committee, who are urged to take some means at once to raise the wind. Unless they act promptly many of the poor plantation darkies will be turned out of their lodgings and forced to spend the nights in the stationhouse or the session chamber. I have not yet been able to secure a full statement of the property owned by members. Deslonde, of Rapides parish, and Bonseigneur, of Orleans, are, I believe, the only negroes worth a farthing. The former is worth about $25,000; the latter, perhaps, $5000. The white members are poor, also, very few, returning any income to the assessor's office. Sudeling, the millionaire of Ouchita; President Taliaferro, Crawford, McMillan and Lynch are the principal exceptions.

It must strike the mind of every person that Congress made no provision whatever to sustain its bantlings. They were willing to Lound on the Jacobin element to execute their behests, but not one cent did they appropriate to support their proteges. The whole expense was to be drawn from the impoverished and desolated people whom they meant to oppress by their legislation. Yet the Convention have voted each member ten dollars a day and passed an ordinance to collect a tax for that purpose, in a summary way. Notwithstanding this, however, the New Orleans correspondent closes with the following statement:

It is asserted publicly that a number of the white members have under serious consideration the propriety of withdrawing from the Convention with a view of terminating the farce by the want of a quorum, but I question it. Ten dollars per day these hard times is too tempting a prize to throw away.

Looking at these assemblages in the light of reason, intelligence and history, it seems to be probable that they cannot influence the destiny of the people, whose fate they assume to control, for one year. The party that brought them into existence is dependent on them for perpetuity. Were this not the case they could not stand one hour in the face and in defiance of the intelligent people of America. Party interest and prejudice alone permit them to be tolerated and endured. Their acts are the acts of fanatics and despots, and are destined to be swept away by the first strong breath of popular judgment that shall be wafted directly against them. Laws and constitutions are a growth, and no such schemes of bold, bad men can enchain long a free and intelligent people, to be the slaves of madmen and fools.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, December 18, 1867.

The President's special message to Congress complimenting Gen. Hancock, was laid before the House this p.m., and that portion suggesting that Congress should make some public recognition of his course at New Orleans, was received with great laughter. The message was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

The Deficiency Appropriation bill, introduced in the House to-day, appropriates for the reconstruction of the 1st Military District, $50,000; 2d Military District, $110,000; 3d Military District, $97,000; 4th Military District, $150,000; 5th Military District, $250,000; total, $657,000; for the Quartermaster's Department for the year ending June 30, 1868, $12,000,000.

There are other minor items, making the whole amount of the bill $12,567,000.

The Committee on Ways and Means continued their investigation into the whisky question to-day. The Committee are impressed with the idea that a radical change must be made in the revenue law, and that in the first place, this tax must be levied on the crude spirits, and paid on the amount run through a spirit meter. They are experimenting with the meter now applied to distilleries by the Treasury Department. The new tax bill will be reported in January, and will cover the whisky question, but the question of reducing the tax has not yet been considered.

Gen. Sheridan was at the War Department to-day, and had a long interview with Gen. Grant. Gen. Sheridan will remain here for several days, and then proceed West, where he will assume command of the Department of Missouri.

In the Senate to-day report was made from the Judiciary Committee on the subject of the admission of Phillip F. Thomas, Senator elect from Maryland, who has not been allowed to take his seat heretofore owing to charges of disloyalty. The Committee report that they find nothing against him, except the fact that his son served in the rebel army. Reverdy Johnson offered a resolution to admit Mr. Thomas, but no action was taken on it. When it comes up it will be strongly opposed by Senators Nye, Wilson, Howard and a few others, but it will probably pass when put to a vote.

Four hours were spent in discussing the bill to repeal the cotton tax, but no action was taken on it.

The House then took up Thad. Stevens' supplemental reconstruction bill and passed it. The third section, increasing the congressional representation in the South is stricken out, and the bill as passed provides that a majority of those voting on the question of a Convention shall be sufficient to adopt or reject, and that Congressmen shall be voted for when the people vote on ratifying the new Constitution.

In the debate Mr. Brooks, of New York, spoke an hour in drawing historical parallels between the negro and white races, and declared this was the last time on which he expected to speak before a white audience on the floor of the House, for, he said, in a few weeks the negro would come down from the galleries and be Representatives in Congress. The Republicans laughed derisively.

Thad. Stevens replied in a ten minute speech, in which he offered to pit Fred. Douglass and Langston against Mr. Brooks for the championship of the United States. Many of the Republican members gathered around Stevens during his remarks.

The father of Gen. Grant called at the White House to-day, and had a pleasant interview with President Johnson.

The Secretary of the Treasury, in a communication to the Senate, to-day, informed that body, in answer to a resolution, that ex-Senator Cowan had been retained to represent the Treasury Department before the Court of Claims, and that in his (the Secretary's) opinion, the public interest was promoted thereby.

A bill declaring forfeited to the United States the lands granted to Southern States to aid them in the construction of railroads, has been reported by the Committee on Public Lands, and will soon be called up for action. The grants of these lands have expired, and the passage of the bill, it is alleged, will give up to homestead entry and settlement nearly five million acres.

Fashionable circles were excited here yesterday over a wedding fiasco. The contracting parties were Col. Parker, Aid on Grant's staff, and Miss Minnie Sackett, a well known belle of this city. Gen. Grant was present in resplendent uniform to give the bride away. But the bridegroom could not be found, and has not since been heard of. The wedding party posted a note of postponement on the church door. Scandalous stories prevail as to the cause of the failure of the bridegroom to appear.

The commercial treaties lately negotiated with China and Madagascar were reported in the Executive session in the Senate for ratification yesterday.

LEGISLATIVE.

SENATE—WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18TH.

On motion of Senator McCall, the Senate adjourned to the 13th of January.

HOUSE.

The memorial to Congress, from which we extracted in yesterday's issue, was prepared and presented by one Mr. Prosser, who, it appears, is not satisfied with drafting bills for the State Legislature, but is also ambitious to perform the same kind office for the Federal Congress.

After hearing a report from the Committee on Enrolled Bills, the House adjourned, in accordance with a joint resolution previously passed, until the second Monday in January, 1868, at ten o'clock a.m.

—The American flag was hardly raised in Alaska before trading shops were opened, vacant lots were covered with the frame-work of shanties, and negotiations were entered upon for the purchase of houses, furs and other property. Sitka, which, for two-thirds of a century, had known nothing beyond a dull, unvarying routine of labor and supply, at prices fixed by a corporate body eight thousand miles distant, was profoundly startled. In less than a week three stores, two ten-pin alleys, two drinking saloons, and a restaurant were opened. Furs went up at once to San Francisco prices. Clams cost now one dollar and twenty-five cents per bushel; price last year thirty cents.

The Status of National Banks.

Judge Ingraham, of New York, has just given an important opinion as to the status of the National Banks. Mr. Pitt Cooke, having a claim against the State National Bank, of Boston, commenced a suit by attachment, that writ having been issued on the ground that the bank was a foreign corporation. The bank moved to vacate the order, mainly on the ground that the act of Congress creating the National Banks provided that they may be sued in the United States Courts of the district in which they are located, and that, being Government agents, they are free from the jurisdiction of all other courts. Judge Ingraham decides that their incorporation does not make them United States agents, and, if it did, would not alter their position, except as to the particular transaction in which they were agents, being in this respect in the position of any bank; that the word "may" in the act was promissory, not restrictive, and that State courts had jurisdiction, and that the United States was foreign to the State of New York, within the meaning of the code, and therefore the attachment must stand.

A Remarkable Invention.

It is stated that a German glass maker has lately made a remarkable discovery. He has invented a telescope, or magnifying glass, by means of which the most intricate nerves and vessels inside of the body may be seen from the outside. In fact, the whole arrangement and action of the inferior organs may, by means of this glass, be distinguished.

The discovery will probably be of immense benefit to mankind, as by means of it the physician will be able to determine with unvarying accuracy the nature of any particular disease, and the proper manner for treating the same.

The name of the inventor, who will probably realize a fortune from his discovery, is Gotlieb Juntz. He is very poor, but a well read and highly intelligent man. He has an aged mother, an invalid wife, six children, and a blind sister, all dependent upon him for support. His mother was well acquainted with the poet Goethe, and it was probably her many anecdotes of this illustrious person which first inspired her son with a desire to do something to win the respect and esteem of his fellow-men.

The glass he has made will probably place him among the first rank of inventors, and win for him the esteem of whole nations.

By means of this invention he has already nearly cured his wife. Six months ago, a well known doctor said she could not live, and pronounced her disease to be an affection of the heart.

Juntz, however, has now proven to him with the aid of the wonderful microscope that he was entirely mistaken; the stomach alone being the part affected.

We are eagerly looking for further information regarding Juntz and his wonderful glass.

—Commodore Vanderbilt proposes to destroy the business of the express companies, by breaking up their contracts for freights on all the roads over which he has any influence, and particularly on the New York Central, Hudson River and Pennsylvania Central.

—The river rope for the new suspension bridge at Niagara Falls weighs over one hundred and fifty tons, and is transported in fifteen cars.

CITY FINANCES.

Abstract of Financial Operations Under the Administration of Mayor Lofland—Interesting Statement.

At the inauguration of Mayor Lofland the condition of the city finances was made known to the new Board by the following statement, which formed a part of the first message, read Oct. 23, 1866:

Coupons due and unpaid	$367,860
Mayor's warrants on the Treasurer	253,822
Bills payable	17,188
Ledger Balances	63,908
Contracts in progress	100,872
	$803,650

Notwithstanding the extraordinary financial crisis through which the country has passed during the past twelve or fifteen months, the liabilities of the city foot to-day as follows:

Bills payable	$131,345 23
Coupons	194,330 00
Warrants on Treasurer	348,142 13
Ledger balances	27,371 82
	$899,188 68

The small increase of the city debt from what it was at the beginning of the Administration and what it foots up at present, cannot, under the circumstances, surprise any considerate friend of the Corporation. During the past fifteen months, added to the cholera and yellow fever epidemics, there has been and yet continues almost throughout the entire length and breadth of the country, a financial crisis which has prostrated every interest of the South. Farmers and planters have barely made bread, while the varied mercantile interests of the country are even now tottering upon the verge of bankruptcy and may not escape the common ruin. Is it surprising then that a city debt already large and under a heavy depreciation should have increased even with the most skillful and cautious management? The difference in the city debt is not then a matter of surprise, but it is a matter of congratulation upon the part of every citizen that any valuable improvements, whatever, could under the circumstances have been projected and successfully carried out. At the commencement of the administration of Mayor Lofland, the entire city was a sea of mud, and the transportation of a single dray-load of produce from Front or Main streets to a depot, often required the enormous sum of five dollars to secure its delivery. One of the first steps of the Mayor was to recommend a general system of permanent improvements, and to have the same effected with the view of increasing the city debt as little as possible. To this end contracts were entered into for paving the streets of the city with the Nicolson pavement, the property holders paying for the same by a special tax levied for the purpose. In this manner, Second, Adams, Madison, Union and Beal were let to the energetic and faithful contractors Taylor, McBean & Co., and have been partially redeemed from the sea of mud usually covering them.

Subsequently a plan was originated for paving Main and other prominent streets, not under contract, for which the contractors were to be paid in the city bonds, the property holders paying to the city in corporation scrip. This plan would have retired the entire floating debt of the city, and placed the corporation upon a cash paying basis, but unfortunately the prevalence of both the cholera and yellow fever epidemics, together with an unprecedented financial crisis which almost prostrated every branch of business of the country, prevented the contractors from executing their contract further than the pavement of Jefferson street, and the plan of funding the city debt in this manner failed. Another plan originated by the present administration, and long a pet scheme with the present Mayor, was the issuance under Legislative authority of Treasury warrants, intended as a circulating medium. By an arrangement with a number of the most prominent bankers of the city these notes of one, two, three, five, ten and twenty dollars printed in bank note style, were to be received by them on deposit, and in payment of any debt due these banks—thus placing them on a par with greenbacks and enabling the city to pay cash for all her contracts. This admirable and advantageous financial arrangement had scarcely been put into operation, when a law of Congress imposed so heavy a tax upon banks paying the notes out as to break up the entire scheme and arrangement with the banks, and necessitate a return to the old plan of the issuance of city scrip, by which the corporation has lost in discount alone perhaps from thirty to fifty thousand dollars per month. Under all these circumstances is it not surprising that the city debt has not increased more than it has? That the present Mayor has been unremitting and untiring in his attention to corporate affairs no one can doubt. That his administration has been a failure, as has been intimated, is a charge which will apply perhaps to every business house in the city of Memphis as well as to the corporation. Financial ability, energy, attention to business, and even capital itself has succumbed to the storm which has well nigh ruined this entire section, and when a charge of failure from incompetency is made the facts and the situation has not been canvassed or thoroughly understood. The facts and figures do not show incompetency in any respect.

While the city debt in all its branches is but little larger than when it passed into the hands of the present administration, valuable and permanent improvements have been made and are now in progress in the face of a general financial crisis. Last winter the city was in the mud so deep as to make it almost navigable. It is to be hoped from the energy with which the work is being prosecuted, that the principal throughfares of the city will be paved by the first day of January next. These are beneficial improvements for which the citizens have been crying for years, and for the want of which a mob could have almost at any time been raised. What credit is due the present administration for its action in these matters? Let those who find fault remember that it is infinitely easier to pull down than it is to build up; and that the question of finances, even in their own private affairs, for the past fifteen months, has not been a matter which has been satisfactorily managed. As to the matter of retrenchment in city matters, I observe from a reference to both the first and last messages sent to the Board by Mayor Lofland, that he earnestly invited their legislation to that end, though I am satisfied that little retrenchment could have been made without almost an entire suspension of the city government.

The Origin of "Dixey."

A writer in the New Orleans Delta says: I do not wish to spoil a pretty illusion, but our Northern negro refrain, is as common to the writer as the lamp-posts in New York city, seventy five years ago. It was one of the everyday allusions of boys at that time in all their out door sports. And no one ever heard of Dixie's land being more than Manhattan Island, until recently, when it was erroneously supposed to refer to the South, from its connection with a pathetic negro allegory. When slaves existed in New York, one Dixy had a large tract on Manhattan Island, and a large number of slaves. The increase of slaves and the increase of abolition sentiment, caused emigration of the slaves to more thorough and secure slave section, and the negroes who were thus sent off naturally looked back to their old homes, where they had lived in clover, with feelings of regret, as they could not imagine any place like Dixy's. Hence, it became synonymous with an ideal locality, combining ease, comfort and material happiness of every description. In these days negro singing and minstrelsy were in their infancy, and any subject that could be brought into a ballad was eagerly picked up. This was the case with Dixy. It originated in New York, and assumed the proportions of a song there. In its travels it has been enlarged, and has gathered moss. It has picked up a note here and a note there. A chorus has been added to it, and from an indistinct chant of two or three notes it has become an elaborate melody. But the fact that it is not a Southern song cannot be rubbed out. The fallacy is so popular to the country, that I have thus been at pains to state the real origin of it.

Another Fire in Vicksburg—Gen. Hancock Revokes Another One of Gen. Mower's Orders—Proceedings of the Louisiana Convention.

NEW ORLEANS, December 20.—Another fire occurred in Vicksburg last night; loss $57,000; insured for $35,000. This makes three incendiary fires in three successive nights.

Special Orders No. 214, dated yesterday, revokes a portion of Mower's Order No. 192, relieving the Judge of the 4th District, the Clerks of the 3d, 4th and 6th District Courts, Justice of the Peace, State Tax Collector, etc., and appointing others in their place. These are the removals which were suspended by orders from Washington. Gen. Hancock's order states that evidence does not sustain allegations.

This order confirms portions of Mower's order 173 and 176, which removes the Coroner and the Third District Justice of the Peace, but makes new appointments. The order states that the charges of malfeasance in office against these officers were not sustained.

The parties named as proposing to take Convention bonds deny all connection with the movement.

A resolution was passed yesterday asking Congress to enact a law that public lands shall not be sold in larger tracts than 100 acres, or smaller than five acres, nor more than one tract to any individual or corporation.

WE SHALL, through Messrs. ROYSTER, TREZEVANT & CO., Auctioneers, offer at public sale, upon the premises, On Thursday, 16th day of January.

The beautiful and valuable Homestead Tract of the late Gen. SAMUEL J. HAYS, containing 1150 acres of land in and immediately adjacent to the city of Jackson, Tenn., subdivided into Lots and small Tracts, suitable for Residences and small Farms. The Mansion is one of the most elegant and spacious in Tennessee, situated on beautiful and highly ornamented ground. The advantages of Railroad facilities from the two roads now in operation, to be increased by the Vincennes and New Orleans Air Line road, passing through Paducah and connecting with the Mississippi Central at this point, make it a center of commercial and manufacturing importance which has given vitality and growth to Jackson, even under all the depressing influences which have retarded almost every other place in the South. In society and health, Jackson is notoriously one of the most attractive cities in the South.

SCHOOL VISITORS.—The Ninth Ward meeting nominated James T. Leath and James Griffin for School Visitors.

STILL ALIVE.—Mr. Branch, who was so seriously cut by the negro Adam a few days since, was still alive yesterday. But little hope is entertained that he can recover.

TEARING DOWN.—We noticed yesterday that the partially completed brick building on Gayoso street, between Main and Second, was being torn down—the foundation thereof being deemed insecure.

FOR ALDERMEN.—The Ninth Ward Conservative meeting, including Chelsea, on Thursday evening, nominated for Aldermen, Judge Swayne and Col. E. McDavitt. The introduction of such gentlemen would greatly enhance the value of our City Legislature.

A CONFEDERATE SOLDIER.—Wm. Adams, required to give bonds for his appearance to answer the charge of robbery in Fayette county, claims to have been in the Confederate service at the time, and to have acted under orders of a superior officer.

THE PAVEMENT.—It was rumored on the streets yesterday, and we believe, on good grounds, that the work of laying the Nicolson pavement on Main street would be resumed on Monday next, Messrs. Baldwin & Co. having undertaken to complete the contract.

ROW IN HAPPY HOLLOW.—Happy Hollow furnished its usual quota yesterday. A row among the feminines took place, and the result was Justice Heinrich sent Julia Kane, Mary Hutchinson and Mary Sherry to jail, there to await the action of the proper authorities.

WOLCOTT, SMITH & CO.—The attention of buyers is directed to the card of this house, located at No. 8 Howard's Row. Since their removal into their new quarters, they have added largely to their stock, and are prepared to fill orders to any extent and at the very lowest rates.

MULE STEALING.—The stables of Mr. J. H. Royster, opposite the Catholic Orphan Asylum on Madison street extended, was visited yesterday morning by some of the mule stealing fraternity, who confiscated one of the long eared species. Information was given to the police, and the thief yet goes uncaught.

WHISKY GONE.—The lovers of the exciting fluid are not yet extinct, as was shown yesterday. The Memphis and St. Louis Packet Company, by their agents, made complaint that they had lost two barrels of whisky marked "E. D." The property is supposed to have been conveyed by means of a skiff, and taken over the river.

MASONIC.—The following officers were chosen by Hamilton Lodge last night for the ensuing twelve months; H. J. Lynn, Master; P. M. Stanley, S. W.; W. N. Wilkerson, J. W.; J. V. Fussel, Treasurer; W. H. Butts, Secretary; R. Dalton, S. D.; Jno. W. Graham, J. D.; A. C. Williamson and F. C. Dustan, Stewards; J. J. Suter, Tyler.

A SOMNAMBULIST.—Kate Dunn, during one of her walking sleepy fits, entered the room of Miss Kate Sullivan, at the Iron-clad, on Exchange street, and abstracted therefrom a quantity of clothing. Complaint was made to Justice Miller, who issued his warrant. The accused was arrested, the property returned, and all went home happy. Query—who compromised the felony?

BLESSING THE BELL.—A large bell has been secured for the use of St. Patrick's Catholic church, and will be hung in a belfry adjoining the church next week. To-morrow evening, at three o'clock, the interesting ceremony of "blessing the bell" will take place at the church, when an appropriate discourse will be delivered by Rev. Father Rochford. An admission fee will be received at the door to defray the expenses of erecting the belfry.

HENRY AMES.—This fine packet, commanded by Capt. Frank Hicks, will be in port this evening, and will leave again on Tuesday evening for New Orleans. Her regular day, Wednesday, being Christmas, she will not remain to leave on that day, as business will be suspended. A clerk will be found at the City Wharfboat receiving for her to-day, who will sign bills of lading. Larry Harmstad & Co. are agents for the Ames.

PERSONAL.—We were glad to meet on the streets yesterday Col. John Donovan, who has just returned from an extended visit North and East. He reports his interview with the President at Washington as most pleasant.
Generals E. Kirby Smith and W. B. Bate are at the Gayoso, where Gen. Gordon Granger also has his rooms. M. T. Ryder is on a visit to his constituents during the recess of the Legislature.

A SPLENDID ANIMAL.—Mr. H. Seessell, of the Poplar street market, exhibited a fine specimen of Christmas beef, yesterday, on the foot. It was a cow four years old and part Durham breed, raised in Kentucky, and brought here for the delectation of connoisseurs in good roast beef, on Christmas day. The animal looked almost too beautiful for slaughtering, but in the very best condition to suit man's pampered appetite. She weighs 1800 pounds.

A STRIKING ARGUMENT.—A negro, who signs himself Reverdy Johnson, and says he is from Virginia, complained to Justice Miller yesterday that a Mr. Brown had struck him, and prayed that a process might be served. As the complainant had the necessary dollar and six bits, the warrant was issued and placed in the hands of Officer Hickey, who lost no time in serving it. The cause of the striking grew out of an argument in reference to a contract, in which Brown was the employer and Johnson the employee. No satisfactory conclusion so far.

RECOVERING.—It affords us real pleasure to learn that Mr. Walker Edmonds, whose attempted assassination by a negro on the Pigeon Roost road was reported in the newspapers, and whose death was afterwards announced, is likely to recover. The wound was supposed to be fatal, and he has not yet passed the point of danger, as a small portion of the brain is said to be oozing from the orifice. We shall be gratified to learn of his recovery, and that the black assassin was foiled in his purpose to murder, as well as his plan to rob—Mr. Edmonds' horse bearing him beyond the fiend's power to overtake him, to a place of security.

THE MAYORALTY.

Editors Memphis Appeal:
If any body, who has read the labored articles in the Bulletin aimed to disparage Mayor Lofland, and denounce him for not doing that which it was not in his or any other person's power to do, can tell what that paper has published that was intelligible or tangible, we confess he is more expert and quick to gather form and proportions from vague and general phraseology, and look through an opaque body, than we are. Yet the Bulletin, as if it had laid down plain propositions and argued them with proof beyond the possibility of refutation, asserts:

"Indeed there is not a single thing the Bulletin has advanced respecting the Mayor's official proceedings refuted—for the reason that the Bulletin's 'smartness' in the matter, consisted of the simplicity of truth, which is irrefutable."

The Bulletin has advanced nothing but a general querulous complaint that the Mayor has not accomplished all that could have been desired. It has specified nothing, save that he had not made a quarterly statement of the financial condition of the city, when the Board of Aldermen had the monthly statement of the finances of the city, which might have been published by all the papers in the city. There is not in all the articles daily fulminated in the Bulletin, another specific charge, and we are not alone in not comprehending what that paper is "aiming at," except that it is twisting and turning over its general terms of disparagement and detraction, hoping to cause injury without incurring responsibility. This much, at least, has grown out of the controversy which has arisen—the tacit admission that J. B. Bingham is the responsible editor of the Bulletin and is using its columns for his own selfish purposes, either to injure those who have offended his dignity, or advance some interest that is to redound to his own advantage. He never discovered that Mayor Lofland did not discharge the duties of his office vigorously and efficiently, until the attempt to get possession of the Memphis and Louisville railroad by Tomeny and Bingham was frustrated. All who read the Bulletin, are aware that the most vehement and violent invectives were poured out upon the management of that road, and if the Bulletin had been believed (which it was not) there was no doubt that the road would be wrested from its old managers and placed in the hands of the new aspirants, who were so certain they had already made arrangements for a clean sweep of the employees, and the successors were even invited, and came to the city. Of course they were subjected to no little disappointment, and hatred and venom have been rankling in Bingham's craw ever since, which he is now letting out upon the Mayor for his instrumentality in procuring his defeat.

As Romeo says of Juliet, in the play: "She speaks, yet she says nothing," so it may be said of Bingham and his Bulletin—for it is, after all, but his mouthpiece, the other so-called co-parceners being mutes, so far as its control is concerned. He became so odious that for his pecuniary interest it was thought best his name should be "retired," but he is "the big dog of the tanyard" still.

We have already shown that Mayor Lofland did all in his power to benefit the city. His recommendations to the Board of Aldermen were conceived in the right spirit and were governed by a large, liberal and enlightened policy, looking always to a prudent and wise economy, and embracing the best interests of the city. These recommendations are not denied by the Bulletin, but it says:

"Even the recommendations of the Mayor to others, to do the great works he failed to accomplish shrink down, etc."

Now, what could any Mayor have done, save recommend to the Board? What could he have accomplished without the co-operative action of the Board? And yet the Bulletin would have people believe that everything lay in the power of the Mayor, and that for want of energy or proper motive, he failed to accomplish any thing! In pressing the Nicolson pavement, he urged a contract that would have secured the completion of the pavements contemplated, and on better terms for the city and property owners than was afterwards determined on against his advice. The policy he devised would have greatly enhanced the value of city securities, and brought the scrip to the neighborhood of par value. When bonds might have been negotiated, he recommended that they should be placed in the market to relieve the city of pressing indebtedness. He recommended that bonds should be issued and school-houses built, instead of renting and repairing inconvenient structures which cost more than the interest on the bonds. He recommended that bonds, authorized by the charter, should be issued for the erection of water-works and construction of sewerage, and a complete survey, with all the drawings and specifications, are in possession of the city. That the action of the Mayor has been consistent with prudence and the interests of the city, it need only be shown who constitute the water-works commission, which was organized last March, viz: W. R. Hunt, Charles Jones, D. Pante, R. D. Baugh, J. J. Murphy, John Overton, Jr., and W. B. Greenlaw. It would be supposed that these gentlemen were interested in the city's welfare, and acting in co-operation with them, and sustained by the Board, the Mayor must have accomplished something for the benefit of the city. The survey cost about $25,000, the amount being increased by the depreciation of scrip which the Mayor could not control, any more than he could compel banks to take it at par, or increase their circulation to make money more abundant.

Every effort has been made by the Mayor to effect an economical administration of the city government. In his last message, he said: "With a proper system of retrenchment, strictly observed, our floating debt can be paid off in one year, and a considerable amount of scrip may be soon retired in these twelve months' notes"—notes to run twelve months, bearing six per cent. interest which he advised to be issued. He more than once advised the sale of the teams and carts, and the discharge of the entire street force, as costing the city more than the benefit accruing from their service, and recommended that such heavy service as they performed should be let out by contract as the cheaper mode. He also recommended that the chain-gang, costing the city $1200 per month, more than all the service rendered was worth, should be turned over to the Metropolitan Police.

In his first message to the Board, Mayor Lofland advised the issue of $1,000,000 of bonds, the interest on which would be $60,000. He showed that the ordinary annual expenses alone, under the old system, was for streets, $193,213; wells and cisterns, $14,787; schools, rents and repairs, $16,412; making an aggregate of $224,412 in three departments alone. Of this, (less interest $60,000), there might be saved $154,412 to be applied to good, substantial improvements.

We have already occupied our prescribed limits, but have shown enough to satisfy any but the most determined incredulity, or selfish ambition, that Mayor Lofland has not been amenable to the charge of inefficiency, negligence, or want of concern for the city's interests. He gives them his undivided attention, understands the affairs of the city through the entire routine, is sober, industrious and discreet, and has discharged the duties of his office with an eye single to the advantage and benefit of the city. In selecting a candidate, the Conservatives can bring no person into the field with as sure prospects of success. CIVES.

RALLY IN THE SEVENTH WARD.—There was a spirited and influential meeting of the Conservative citizens of the Seventh Ward, held last night to select delegates to the Nominating Convention, that comes off this (Saturday) evening, in the Criminal Court room. The lateness at which the call for the meeting was issued, prevented as large an attendance as there would otherwise have been, but the spirit manifested was hopeful and enthusiastic. G. A. Hanson, Esq., was chosen to act as Chairman, and P. Galens as Secretary. After consultation as to the present position of municipal affairs, and brief speeches which met with general approval, it was resolved to send five delegates to the Nominating City Convention. This being carried, the delegates selected were Messrs. John H. Hartley, R. H. Leash, M. Maher, G. A. Hanson, Esq., and P. Gatens.
On motion it was resolved that the Conservative citizens of the Seventh Ward will hail with satisfaction the nomination by the Conservative Convention of any good, reliable candidate, for the Mayoralty, who will rescue the city of Memphis from its present deplorable financial condition.
G. A. HANSON, Chairman.
P. GATENS, Secretary.

MORE VICTIMS.—Three negro boys, who brought an order from Arkansas, where they had been working, for two hundred and fifteen dollars, and received the money on Thursday evening. They entrusted the charge to their boarding house keeper, as they thought it dangerous to have so much on their persons. When they applied for it yesterday morning, the black Boniface insisted that he had paid it over to one of them. He should be made to disgorge, or as an evening cotemporary says he is suspected of dividing with Tom Avant, he should be made to disclose. Such breach of faith and rascality should not go without their proper recompense.

STEALING AND CONTEMPT.—One Peter Smith was arrested yesterday, on a warrant issued by Esquire Miller, charged with stealing a pistol. On being brought into Court he was somewhat uproarious and used insulting language toward the Justice, who fined him fifty dollars for contempt and sent him up under five thousand dollar bonds on the charge of stealing. Perhaps the aforesaid member of the Smith family will know better how to demean himself when brought into Court hereafter.

FIRE AT FOREST HILL.

Female Academy Destroyed.

Adjoining Buildings Saved.

The main building of the Female Academy at Forest Hill, beyond Germantown, was destroyed by fire night before last. It was a large frame, and was erected many years ago. The adjoining buildings were saved, including the sleeping apartments. It has not transpired how the fire originated, or the probable loss. The school was largely patronized from Memphis, and has always had a most favorable reputation. The calamity, we presume, will not interrupt the school exercises, but that immediate measures will be taken to procure the conveniences for imparting instruction to the classes.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—The benefit of Mr. Mayo drew a brilliant house last night, and the performances went off with eclat. The first piece, Dreams of Delusion, was a curious, yet striking drama. The plot is simple, "St. Bernard" (Mr. Mayo) loving his wife, "Lady Viola" (Mrs. Allen) with his whole soul, is shocked to find himself and wife on their continental tour pursued everywhere, by a man, who seeks every opportunity for an interview with "Lady Viola," but is shunned by her, who loves her husband dearly. Believing himself wronged, his nervous sensibility it so shocked he becomes a monomaniac, and thinks he has slain his wronger and cast him in the sea. He likewise fancies his wife is crazed and wishes to keep the fact a secret for the sake of their child. They go into seclusion, and "St. Bernard" writes to his friend, "Dr. Pungent" (Mr. Mitchell), to come down. At first the doctor is deceived, but soon learns the true state of the case. He tries one or two interesting experiments, but without effect, and is hopeless until a cousin, who has some inkling of the malady, and is next in succession, hunts up the parties, with the purpose of having a writ of de lunatico inquirendo served. He brings with him "Lord Arthur" (Mr. Brown), who is recognized as the cause of all the trouble, but has been secretly married to "Anabel," the neice of "St. Bernard," and seeks an interview with "Lady Viola," to importune her kind offices to reconcile St. Bernard to the marriage. The eclaircisement takes place, the monomaniac recovers his senses, and all are happy save the disappointed cousin. The characters were all well represented, and the plaudits were frequent and enthusiastic. At the close, Mr. Mayo was called out, and responded to a call for a speech in a few neat and appropriate remarks, expressive of his grateful appreciation of the kindness he had met with, and retiring amid renewed applause. In the afterpiece, as "Bagshot" in The Bull in a China Shop, he kept the audience in constant good humor. To-night he will appear as Richard III.

TEMPERANCE FAIR.—This Fair at the Greenlaw Club Room was largely attended last night, and with light soles the company enjoyed themselves in the festive dance. Table No. 5, presided over by Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Lena Chappelle, seemed to be the principal point of attraction. The singing of Miss Dupree was truly delicious, and added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening at the Fair. To-night will be the close of the Fair, and will possess more interest than any preceding evening. At the time we left the voting stood as follows: For the cane for the most zealous Son of Temperance, Jones and Carey tie; Harness—Seligman twenty votes ahead; Base Ball Bat—Enterprise ahead; Cane for Mayor—Fitch a few votes ahead. The voting will close to-night as follows: On Cane for Son of Temperance at 10 o'clock; on gold medal at 10¼ o'clock; on regalia for Son of Temperance at 10½ o'clock; on harness at 11 o'clock; on base ball bat at 11¼ o'clock; Mayors cane, 11½ o'clock; pistols for local editor, 11¾ o'clock. As this will be the closing evening it is unnecessary to urge our citizens to throng the Fair, which has such a laudable object in view, being for the benefit of the Sons of Temperance.

MEMPHIS, December 20, 1867.
We are informed that a certain person in this city, who is clothed with judicial ermine, and whose first name is Hunter, is telling it around town that the witnesses in the case of the State against D. P. D. Beecher, in his stealing, and upon whose testimony the Grand Jury found a true bill, "have all left or run away." This is a lie, and the Judge knows it at the time he utters it. They are all here to prove that, and more when it becomes necessary. The author of this is responsible for the publication, and the language used, as he knows he is justifiable in what he says. Z.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

The weather has moderated very sensibly since our last, and some indications of rain are apparent. We learn that the river between this point and Vicksburg is in a very bad condition, with scant five and a half feet on the shoalest bars, and falling. Hence to Cairo the channel is worse than ever known before, and it is questionable whether those boats coming out of the Ohio can get down to this point. Capt. Houston, of the Peerless, reports the channel narrow and shifting hourly, with less than five feet, and very hard to find. His packet came through with difficulty. The Julia, due down, is sounding at every crossing. Above Cairo is a sealed book. There is plenty of ice and no water, and such boats as are yet above will likely stay there until a change occurs. The Missouri is frozen over at Omaha, but even without ice has not sufficient water to be navigable. The cold weather of Wednesday and Thursday checked the rise in the lower Ohio, but there is ample water to the mouth for steamboat purposes—five feet is easily found from Louisville to the mouth. The Alaska, on arrival at Louisville, found there was not water enough to go over the falls, and laid up awaiting a rise. On Wednesday night there were only three feet at Pittsburg; five at Wheeling; eight at Gallipolis and Pomeroy, with the Kanawha receding; twelve and one-half feet at Cincinnati; sixty-five inches in the Louisville canal; three and one-half feet over the falls, and nine feet at the foot of the falls, with gorges at two or three points, but our dispatches to-day announce another rise at Pittsburg, with five feet three inches in the channel, and our night dispatches will, no doubt, report still more water. If this weather continues we may look for a flood of unusual proportions from that stream.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Mayflower was detained by fog. She will be in port to-day, and leave on Monday at 5 p.m for Cairo and Evansville. Josh Throop is master.

The Henry Ames, Capt. Hicks, will be in port to leave on Tuesday for New Orleans. Wednesday being Christmas, she will not wait for her usual time.

The Peerless, Capt. Sam Houston, leaves to-day at 5 p.m. for the Arkansas. She brought in a good trip from the Ohio and looks well.

The Julia, Capt. Sousley, will no doubt be in port early this morning. She is advertised to leave for New Orleans at 10 o'clock a.m.

The Vicksburg will be here to-night. She leaves for New Orleans on Tuesday next. Capt. Brooks commands.

The Empire, Capt. Whitlow, came in last night from Louisville. She departs to-day for that port, and has all the cotton engaged she can carry.

The Minneola, Capt. Matter, is due from Cincinnati. She will get away this evening at 5 for all points along the Ohio. She is the crack boat of the Dean line.

The Des Arc backs out to-day at 5 p.m for all points on White river. She is a No. 1 packet. Capt. John Elliott commands, and Messrs. Miller and Hanks are clerks.

The Kate Hart came in from Cairo last night. She departs this evening for that point at 5, Capt. Ball is master.

The Silver Spray is loading at Cincinnati for New Orleans.

The Rebecca is in the mouth of Fishing creek, and can't get out until that stream rises.

The Liberty, Minneola, Luminary, Belle Memphis, Julia and Countess are only a few of the boats due last night. The latter was hard aground at some point above when the Peerless passed down.

The Bart Able, Capt. Harrison, brought up 750 sacks salt, about 400 barrels molasses, and other freight for shipment to Louisville by rail. She leaves to-day for New Orleans at 5 p.m. Mr. Culbertson is clerk.

The splendid passenger packet Liberty No. 2, is the regular United States mail steamer leaving to-day for White river. She connects with the Fairy Queen for Jacksonport, and the cars for Little Rock. The friends of the line on White will be pleased to see this elegant packet in the trade. Capt John Davis, the Superintendent of the line, deserves much praise for his energy and good taste in selecting the Liberty. Capt. E. C. Morton will, we learn, take command of her, and Messrs. Kidder, Harry and Sharp will go in the office.

Capt. John Davis, we learn, returns to Cincinnati in a day or two to superintend the building of the new hull for the machinery of the Rowena.

The Belle Memphis, Capt. Dan. Musselman, with Geo. Deane in the office, leaves for Cairo and St. Louis to-day at 5 p.m.

Capts. R. P. Walt and Bob Gibson returned yesterday from Cincinnati.

Our genial and accomplished friend, Col. Jacob Frolich, of the White County Record, whose portly person has graced our sanctum semi-occasionally within the past few days, takes his departure to-day for the scene of his labors and the home of his love, on the Liberty. Jake, this time, only plays second fiddle to a newly married pair, but the day is coming when he will be the leader of his own orchestra, composed of lots of little frolick-some musicians, who will call him Pa.

From Mr. Milt. Harry, the handsome clerk of the Ozark, we learn that the Olive Branch is above the bar at Helena. The Luminary coming up on Thursday, made two efforts to cross, but failed, and had to drop back to the Helena wharf to await daylight. The latter boat has a barge in tow and will, no doubt, render any assistance needed by the Olive Branch.

The M. S. Mepham left her freight at Crawford's and returned to Cairo, where she loads for New Orleans. The Decatur band are still on board.

The Memphis and St. Louis Packet Company have, so far this season, taken the following amounts of cotton to St. Louis for shipment east:
Marble City, 4547 bales; Belle Memphis, 4231; Ned Tracey, 4142; City of Cairo, 3835; Adam Jacobs, 3812; Paragon, 3216; Belle St. Louis, 2519; W. J. Lewis, 2462; H. S. Turner, 1243; G. W. Graham, 1112; City of Alton, 1048; Post Boy, 588; Deer Lodge, 468; Cornelia, 7. A total of 33,040 bales against 16,000 in 1866, and 48,868 bales in 1865.

Capt. A. C. Goddin is now in command of the Wild Wagoner. She remains in the Natchez and New Orleans trade.

The Dexter, Gov. Allen and St. Charles are advertised to leave Louisville this evening for New Orleans.

Capt. F. A. Blanks has bought an interest in the Vicksburg, and will command her when the Ouachita rises.

Capt. H. L. Lee assumes command of the W. B. Dance at New Orleans, and she goes to Red river instead of Mobile.

The wreck of the Merrimac, famous as the first of the iron-clads, has just been removed from the bed of the Elizabeth river, where it was sunk.

Capt. Sam Shock has been solicited by many voters of the African persuasion to run for wharfmaster—to place his respected name upon a transparency and allow it to be toted through the coming canvass by a little nigger. He is not soliciting the honor of the office as much as the endowments, but is willing to sacrifice his personal comfort for the good of the city and his own interest. If elected he will use his influence to have the laws governing the rights of property, which are at present a mere nullity, abolished altogether, and cargoes will then, instead of being turned over to consignees, be divided among his constituents and the wharfmaster, the latter taking the contents and the others the packages, which shall be divided among them. The present coffee stands shall continue upon the landing, but they shall be free to those who lend him their support. In the event that the present proprietors fail, then any of his friends shall have the privilege of opening on the same terms. Steamboats will be required to furnish a cold collation to his friends of both colors while in port. No wharfage will be received in city scrip, for reasons that need not be mentioned; wages shall go up to fifty cents per hour while boats lay in port, and all of his true friends shall be considered part of the crew. These are only a few of the changes he proposed to make when elected.

FASSMAN'S IRON TIES
—FOR—
COTTON BALES.

THE undersigned have made extensive arrangements to supply the demand for these Ties the present season.
In addition to the FASSMAN DIAMOND TIE and BUTTON TIE, so extensively used heretofore, they now offer his ALLIGATOR TIE, with teeth so arranged as to instantly clamp the hoop when the pressure is removed from the bale, and hold it without slipping.
Great pains have been taken to secure the best quality of iron.
These Ties are so simple in their arrangement that they can be applied by any one, to bales of any size, with the same facility and expedition as rope. In strength, security and facility of application, they will compare favorably with any yet introduced.
The advantages of Iron Ties are now generally recognized; but it is deemed not out of place to call the attention of those interested to the very emphatic recommendation of Underwriters, Steamboat Captains, and Owners and Agents of Sea Steamers and Selling Vessels, recently published in the newspapers in New Orleans.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, December 20, 1867.

Exchange is abundant on all points. Cotton has moved freely within the past few days, and currency has been close with all our banks. Much of the cotton now going forward is shipped direct to Liverpool, Bremen and Hamburg via New Orleans, one bank alone having covered about 700 bales to-day for Europe. There is no variation to report in buying rates, though some of our discount houses express a willingness to make concessions on selling rates.

Gold opened in New York at 134c; it advanced an ⅛ at noon, but declined to 133⅞c at the close. Our dealers were not favored with opportunities of buying, but such small amounts as were presented were taken at 132½@133c.

City Scrip is stiffer with an increased counter demand. Dealers bought at 35½@36c, and sell at 37@38c.

We have on several occasions published for the information of our readers the kind of instruments in writing which require to be stamped. By request we republish to-day such as need stamping in ordinary business transactions, and would suggest that it be cut out for reference:

All notes and evidence of debt, under $100, 5 cents on each additional $100 or part thereof.

All receipts, for any amount, without limit, over $20, 2 cents.

All deeds and deeds of trust, 50 cents on each $500 in value of property conveyed, or the amount secured. When a deed of trust is duly stamped, the note secured must not be; but they should be indorsed to show the reason why.

All appraisements of estates of estrays 5 cents on each sheet or piece of paper.

Affidavits of every description are exempt from stamp duty.

Acknowledgments to deeds, etc., are also exempt.

Contracts and agreements, 5 cents, except for rent; when for rent, 50 cents for $300 of rent, or less; if over $300, 50 cents for each $200, or less over $300.

The Liverpool cotton market opened quiet to-day at the same quotations given yesterday and was unchanged throughout, closing easier, however, with sales amounting to 10,000 bales. The New York market at the opening was quiet but firm at yesterday's figures. At noon there was no change, but at the close was dull and heavy—Middlings, 16⅜c. This market was quiet with a fair day's sales. There was no urgency on the part of either buyer or seller that we could perceive. Some good sized lists were taken on a basis of 13½c, but exceptional sales were reported at 13¾@13⅞c. There is, we regret to see, a disposition on the part of one or two buyers who are of recent importation into our market, to conceal their transactions from the press. They buy with an understanding that the seller must not report the figures to the papers. What object these gentlemen have in view is more than we can conceive and may be peculiar to the section of country from which they hail, but they can rest assured that suppressing such transactions from the public is not characteristic of an honest buyer. The man who fears to let his transactions see the light of day should not buy cot on for us, and is unworthy of the confidence of speculator or manufacturer. The sales for the week in Liverpool amounted to 68,000 bales; 11,000 for export, and 2000 to speculators. Stock on hand, 460,000 bales, of which 82,000 are American. Our market closed quiet.

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

ATLANTA, December 19.—The Convention to-day recommended the appointment of R. B. Bullock as Provisional Governor of Georgia, and passed several measures in regard to per diem and mileage of delegates.

At a caucus of members of the Convention last night it was resolved to support Chief Justice Chase for President.

BUFFALO, December 20.—It seems now certain that the real cause of the horrible railroad accident was by the breaking of a wheel on the hind car. A majority in the burnt car were instantly killed by the concussion, when it fell and struck the ice. There were forty-four dead recovered; of these twenty-three were in a condition to be recognized, and twenty-one so charred that they were unrecognizable.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The President sent to the House yesterday afternoon a communication from the State Department, relative to the visit of one Geo. H. Sharpe to Europe under orders of that department to ascertain if there were any citizens of the United States in that quarter, other than those hitherto suspected, charged with having been concerned in the assassination of President Lincoln, and the attempted assassination of the Secretary of State. Mr. Sharpe's visit seems to have been for the purpose of identifying persons connected with Surratt, and ascertain whether the latter had dealings with any of the rebels either in England, or on the continent. While on his way to the Papal States he ascertained that at the British Foreign Office, on the 13th of October, 1865, Surratt obtained a passport, through the influence of leading rebel sympathizers in England, to visit the Papal States. Sharpe then proceeded to Rome, where, he had been informed, Surratt had left many important papers. He found nothing but Surratt's passport, which it seems had been obtained from the Provincial Government of Canada. After detailing his researches at length, Mr. Sharpe closes by saying that, in his opinion, there was no legal or reasonable proof of the existence or participation of any persons in Europe who were former citizens of the United States. Such had to call for action of the Government.

Capt. Richard H. Meade, United States Navy, has been placed on the retired list, on account of physical disability.

RICHMOND, December 20.—In the Convention to day the Judiciary Committee reported adversely to declaring void all debts contracted since 1860 for the purchase of slaves, on the ground that the Convention had no power by the civil courts. The report was tabled.

The report of the Committee on Printing, giving the Convention printing to the proprietors of the New Nation, was adopted. One establishing Houses of Correction in cities of over one thousand inhabitants, and establishing primary schools in Districts where fifty children can attend, clothing the Governor with the power to remove for physical disability, and when he pardons a criminal requiring all voting to be done by ballot. A resolution requesting Gen. Schofield to abolish distinction on account of color in public conveyances, and a petition asking the same thing of the Convention, were referred. A resolution to require the Legislature to impose a capitation tax of two dollars on all persons over sixteen years of age for educational purposes, was laid on the table. After some debate relative to drawing pay up to recess, the Convention adjourned.

NEW YORK, December 20.—Later advices from Mexico state that bands of dissenters had forcibly disposed of Gen. Capelero, the Governor of Yucatan.

There reigned at the capital great excitement over the total withdrawal of the British legation and consuls. The matter was freely commented upon by all the press.

According to his instructions, Mr. Middleton is to place British subjects under the protection of Mexico himself. It was expected that all the European legations would follow the example of Great Britain, and leave the United States sole occupant of the diplomatic field in Mexico.

An attempt was made to assassinate Gen. Attalore, late Military Governor of the State of Vera Cruz, when he was leaving the theater at Jalepa. During the disturbance that ensued, some parties shouted vivos in honor of Gen. Diaz, proclaiming him President of Mexico. The idea of the movers was to immediately demand the enforcement of a loan of $3,000,000 to support the cause. Nearly all the political prisoners have been liberated.

KAVANAGH & DECKER'S

BILLIARD TABLES

THE most reliable Cushion used on Billiard Tables is the

CAT-GUT CUSHION,

Manufactured by KAVANAGH & DECKER, and Patented Dec. 18, 1866. (See Scientific American, Vol. 16, No. 11.)

It is the only Cushion that possesses all the qualities essential to a Perfect Cushion. It is the most elastic and most durable Cushion ever offered to the billiard-playing public, as is abundantly proven by the great demand for it since its introduction. The peculiarity which distinguishes the Cat-Gut Cushion and renders it superior to all others, is the tightened cord of cat-gut which overlies the face and edge of the rubber and running the full length of the Cushion, which prevents the ball from bedding into the rubber and jumping from the table. The addition of the cat-gut cord also adds much to the elasticity of the Cushion.

The Cat-Gut Cushion has already been applied to over 1000 tables, which are in constant use. It can be applied to tables of any make, for $75 per set.

Kavanagh & Decker's Factory, at the corner of Centre and Canal streets, N. Y., is the most complete of its kind in the world. The machinery is of the most improved character, the lumber drying room the largest in the United States, the material used the best that can be purchased, and the workmen thoroughly skilled.

Billiard Cloth, Balls, Cues and Trimmings, all of the best make, constantly on hand.

Kavanagh & Decker are the only agents in this country for Kay's Cue Cement, adjudged by competent authorities to be the best Cement ever used.

Full size Tables cut down for $100.

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.

THESE Instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the tested beauty of tone being equa ly delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep5 d&wly
